

AWTTC 2021 IPFR Workshop

Monday, 29th November 2021, 9:15-12:15

Held virtually via Zoom (link will be emailed prior to meeting)

Chair: Dr James Coulson

Programme

9:15 am	Welcome and Introduction Dr James Coulson, Interim AWTTC Medical Director
9:30am	Session A: For IPFR Panel Members and Associates Heath economics: Dr Berni Sewell, Health economist, University of Swansea and Dr Sophie Hughes, Health economist, Health Technology Wales 9:30 foundation - basic concepts 9:50 advanced - applying concepts to IPFR (with worked example) 10 minutes for questions Session B: For Clinicians Ann-Marie Matthews, IPFR Co-ordinator, Aneurin Bevan UHB and Gail Woodland, Pharmacist, AWTTC How to make a good submission What to cover when discussing your application with your patient How to submit using the e-submission process Outcomes and continued funding process 10 minutes for questions and discussion on engaging clinicians in the IPFR process Session C: For IPFR Teams Rosie Spears, Senior Scientist, AWTTC Adding entries to the database: dos and don'ts Processing e-submissions Adding evidence to the library Using the reporting function on the IPFR database 10 minutes for questions for the database team Delegates will be pre-assigned a session based on their role
10.30am	Break
10.35 am	Clinic Sessions Attendees to choose one of the 3 sessions below and join the relevant breakout room. Each topic will run for 20 minutes. (40 minutes per session). Session D: Ethics and Legal Session E: Attending WHSSC as a panel member and Ethics Session F: Legal and Attending WHSSC as a panel member Speakers: Dr Richard Hain, Honorary Professor in Clinical Ethics, University of Swansea and IPFR Chair, Cardiff & Vale UHB ; Professor Vivienne Harpwood, Professor of Law, Cardiff University and IPFR Chair, Welsh Health Specialised Services Committee; Professor Iolo Doull, Medical Director, Welsh Health Specialised Services Committee

(Programme continued overleaf)

Programme (Continued)

11:15am	Questions to the Clinic Session Expert panel.
11.25am	5 minutes of mindfulness
11.30am	IPFR Cases: Ann-Marie Matthews, Aneurin Bevan and Gail Woodland, AW TTC A run through of the two cases previously sent to each panel with time for discussion and learning. Cases can be provided to non-panel members prior to the session on request.
12.15 pm	Close of meeting

You are welcome to attend all or part of the morning. Sessions will be videoed and shared on the AW TTC website for people to view at a later date.

Thank you for logging into the IPFR Workshop 2021

AWTTC

All Wales Therapeutics & Toxicology Centre
Canolfan Therapiwteg a Thocsicoleg Cymru Gyfan